

Young Artist Competition Past Winners

2006-2007 Season

Clark Ikezu, violin

Clark won while in the sixth grade at Alice Buffett Middle School in Omaha. He began studying the violin at age 5, and is currently a student of Anne Nagosky. He has participated in numerous Suzuki camps and workshops in Omaha, Lincoln, and Madison, WI. Clark is a member of the OAYO Youth Philharmonic, where he serves as the Concertmaster. In addition to violin, Clark also plays piano and french horn. Clark performed the first movement of the Symphonie Espagnole, Op. 21 by Edouard Lalo.

Yasmeen Bora, violin

Yasmeen won while in the sixth grade at Millard North Middle School in Omaha. She began studying the violin at age 3, and studies with William Wolcott at the Omaha Conservatory of Music. Yasmeen participated in the Lincoln Suzuki Institute for several years, and has performed solos at three of their workshops. She is also a member of the OAYO Youth Philharmonic. Yasmeen performed the second movement of the Concerto in D Minor, Op. 22 by Henryk Wieniawski.

2007-2008 Season

Arthur Masyuk, violin

Arthur was selected as a winner while a freshman at Milard West High School in Omaha. He studies violin with Ms. Anne Nagosky of the Omaha Symphony. Arthur participated in the UNO String Olympics, and attended the Rocky Mountain Summer Conservatory for four years. Arthur participates in the OAYO Youth Symphony, where he is a member of the first violin section. He has also been involved in a number of community theatre productions in both Omaha and Papillion. Arthur performed the first movement of the Violin Concerto, Op. 48 by Dmitri Kabalevsky.

As of 2017, Arthur is pursuing a Master's in Violin Performance at DePaul University in Chicago.

Izayah Dutcher, violin

Izayah was selected as a winner while a sixth grader at Rosehill Elementary School in Omaha. He studies violin with William Wolcott at the Omaha Conservatory of Music. Izayah is a member of the Frontier String Ensemble, and has performed solos in recitals at the Omaha Conservatory of Music. He also plays violin in the OAYO Youth Philharmonic. Outside of the playing violin, Izayah enjoys video games and appreciates a good game of chess. Izayah performed the first movement of the Violin Concerto in D Major, K. 418 by Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart.

O! What a Sound!

2008-2009 Season

Junior Division: Jennifer Ahn, violin

Jennifer is the daughter of Jongsam and Jiyoun Ahn of Omaha. She won while a sixth grader at Swanson Elementary School in Omaha. Jennifer started playing violin at age six, and currently studies with Ruth Meints at the Omaha Conservatory of Music. She is a member of the Frontier String Ensemble and participates in the Omaha Area Youth Orchestra program. When she is not playing the violin, Jennifer enjoys ballet, playing the flute in her school band, reading, and spending time with her family. When Jennifer was asked about her future career plans, she stated that she hopes to become a concert violinist or a doctor. Jennifer performed the 3rd movement of the Violin Concerto No. 2 in D Minor, Op. 22 by Henryk Wieniawski.

Senior Division: Yuechen Zhao, piano

Yuechen is the son of Yingchun Zhao and Lina Jin of Omaha. A sophomore at Westside High School, Yuechen started playing piano at age ten. He studies with Dr. James Johnson at the University of Nebraska-Omaha. Yuechen participates in Math, Chess, French and Writers Clubs at Westside, and is also a member of the Student Leadership Council. In addition to playing piano, he is a percussionist in the Westside Band. In his spare time, Yuechen enjoys programming, web design, working with computers, reading, and spending time with his family. He would like to attend college at either Harvard or the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and plans to major in computer science or engineering. Yuechen performed the 1st movement of the Concerto No. 3 in C Minor, Op. 37 by Ludwig van Beethoven. Yuechen graduated from Harvard with a degree in Computer Science, and currently lives in Beijing, China.

2009-2010 Season

Junior Division: Nadia Maudhoo, violin

Nadia is the daughter of Subash Maudhoo and Megumi Nagae of Omaha. She began studying the violin at age 7 and has performed with a variety of musical groups throughout the Omaha area. In 2008, Nadia was selected as the winner of both the OAYO Youth Concerto Competition and the Lucy Weed String Competition. An eighth grader at Russell Middle School in Millard, Nadia studies violin with Anne Nagosky. In addition to music, Nadia is active in Omaha's Japanese and Indian communities, learning and performing traditional Indian dances. Nadia performed the Introduction & Rondo Capriccioso by Camille Saint-Saens. As of 2020, Nadia graduated from New York University, and is pursuing a Master's degree in Violin Performance at the University of Nebraska-Omaha.

Senior Division: Luke Witchger, violin

Luke Witchger is the son of John Witchger and Maria Teresa Gaston of Omaha. Music has always been a passion for Luke since he began taking violin lessons at the age of three. He is a senior at Creighton Prep, and studies violin with Anne Nagosky. He was the 2007 winner of the OAYO Youth Concerto Competition. He has attended several summer music institutes, including the Rocky Mountain Summer Conservatory, the National High School Music Institute at Northwestern University, and the Meadowmount School of Music. In 2008-2009, Luke was an exchange student in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. Luke performed the first movement of the Concerto No. 2 in D Minor by Henryk Wieniawski. Luke graduated from the Juilliard School with a degree in Violin Performance and now lives in Jacksonville, FL.

2010-2011 Season

Junior Division: Arjun Maudhoo, violin

Arjun is the son of Subash and Megumi Maudhoo of Omaha. He began studying the violin at age five and has won several medals in the UNO String Olympics. Arjun is a current participant in the Omaha Area Youth Orchestra program, and currently serves as principal second violin in the Youth Philharmonic. He has performed with the Omaha Symphony in its “Symphony Spooktacular” and “Christmas with the Symphony” concerts. A fifth grader at Rohwer Elementary School, Arjun studies violin with Anne Nagosky and piano with Dr. Momoro Ono. Arjun is active in the Omaha Japanese School and enjoys reading books from the Ranger Apprentice series by John Flanagan. Arjun performed the first movement of the Violin Concerto, Op. 48, by Dmitri Kabalevsky. Arjun began attending New York University (NYU) in the fall of 2018.

Senior Division: Jehong (Daniel) Ahn, viola

Jehong is the son of Jongsam and Jiyoun Ahn of Omaha. Music has always been a part his life since taking violin/viola lessons at the age nine. A sophomore at Westside High School, Jehong studies viola with Ruth Meints. He was the winner of the 2010 Lucy Weed String Competition, and was also chosen as a semi-finalist in the 2010 ASTA National Solo Competition. He is a member of the Omaha Area Youth Orchestra’s Youth Symphony and plays viola in the Frontier String Ensemble. Outside of music, Jehong is a member of the Math Club and participates on the Track and Cross Country teams at Westside High School. Jehong performed the first movement of Der Schwanendreher by Paul Hindemith. After graduating from the University of Rochester in Rochester, NY, Daniel earned his Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the University of Nebraska-Omaha Medical Center in 2021.

2011-2012 Season

Junior Division: Isabella Amador, violin

Isabella is an eighth grader at Kiewit Middle School. She began her studies at age 4, following in the footsteps of her musical parents, Ricardo and Mary Amador of Omaha. She currently studies violin with Ruth Meints at the Omaha Conservatory of Music (OCM). Isabella has participated in the OCM Institute sessions for the past five years, and recently attended the Sound Encounters workshops in Ottawa, KS. Isabella is currently a member of the Kiewit Middle School Orchestra, OAYO Youth Philharmonic, the Frontier String Ensemble, and the OCM Camerata. Isabella’s hobbies include ballet and jazz dance classes, and playing video games with her younger sister.

Senior Division: Yasmeen Bora, violin

A violin student of William Wolcott at the Omaha Conservatory of Music, Yasmeen has performed in many recitals, chamber groups, summer institutes, and orchestras. Yasmeen currently serves as the concertmaster of the OAYO Youth Symphony, and was selected as concertmaster of the 2011 All-State Orchestra. She has won several competitions, including those sponsored by OAYO and the Lincoln Symphony. Yasmeen was also invited to solo with the Omaha Symphony Chamber Orchestra during their Celebrate Creativity series. Yasmeen received her Bachelor’s degree in Psychology from Columbia University in 2018.

2012-2013 Season

Junior Division: Richard Cho, violin

Richard is the son of Seungyee Hwang of Omaha, and is a sixth grader at Elkhorn Ridge Middle School in Omaha. Richard started playing violin at age six, and currently studies with William Wolcott at the University of Nebraska-Omaha. He is a member of the OAYO Youth Philharmonic Orchestra, and was recently recognized as a junior division finalist in the 2012 MTA Young Artist Competition, as well as an Honorable Mention in the 2012 OAYO Youth Concerto Competition. In addition to playing the violin, Richard enjoys playing percussion in his school band, reading books and playing golf. He and his family now reside in Alpharetta, GA.

Senior Division: Jennifer Ahn, violin

Jennifer is the daughter of Jongsam and Jiyoun Ahn of Omaha, and is a sophomore at Westside High School. Jennifer started playing violin at age six, and currently studies with Ruth Meints at the Omaha Conservatory of Music. She is a member of the Frontier String Ensemble and participates in the Omaha Area Youth Orchestra program, where she was selected as the winner of their 2011 Youth Concerto Competition. In 2012, Jennifer was selected as the winner of the Max and Lillie Larsen Young Artist Award. Outside of playing violin, Jennifer enjoys ballet, playing the flute, reading and spending time with her family. As of 2019, she graduated from the Manhattan School of Music (MSM) with a degree in Violin Performance and will begin working on her Master's degree at MSM in the fall.

2013-2014 Season

Junior Division: Derek Hwang, cello

Derek Hwang is a ten year old cellist who is a sixth grader at Sacred Heart School in Sioux City, Iowa. He began playing the cello at age 5, and now studies cello with Dr. Marie-Elaine Gagnon at the University of South Dakota in Vermillion. Derek is currently a member of the Sioux City Youth Symphony's cello section. Derek also enjoys traveling and participating in the Philadelphia International Music Festival each summer. This past year, he was honored to be selected as one of the festival's Concerto Competition finalists.

Senior Division: Rebecca Chouinard, violin

Rebecca held her first violin at the young age of 3. For the next 11 years, she learned how to play the violin under the instruction of Erin Cosby. Now, with Anne Nagosky as her private teacher, she is continuing her studies on the violin. She has been a member of Frontier String Ensemble, under the direction of Ruth Meints, since its inception. Throughout grade school, Rebecca has also participated in the Omaha Area Youth Orchestras including Youth Chamber Strings, Youth Philharmonic and Youth Symphony. Although violin is her primary instrument, she takes piano lessons from Carol Novak and, this past year, has started playing the viola. Besides her musical interests, Rebecca has also trained in classical ballet since the age of 4. She is currently a student at Benedictine College in Kansas.

Orchestral Division: Lukas McIlhaney, flute

Lukas McIlhaney is a 17 year old flutist from Wahoo. Primarily self-taught the first couple of years, he has studied with Leslie Fagan for the last three years. Lukas also spent the last two summers studying flute performance at the Rocky Ridge Music Center in Estes Park, CO and has participated in masterclasses at UNL, Florida State, and with professional recording duo IN STERIO. Lukas has performed in the OAYO program for the last five years and is in his third year with the Youth Symphony. Other performances include the 2012 Nebraska All-State Band and 2013 Nebraska All-State Orchestra. In early 2012, Lukas was invited to perform with the Omaha Conservatory of Music's Winter Festival Orchestra on the world premiere of two commissioned works by Danny Sabra. Lukas has also studied piano and violin and enjoys composing music. He studies composition with Danny Sabra (OCM). His composition, Shatter (for flute and piano) was performed by the Omaha Chamber Music Society in May of 2012. His latest work, Far (for solo piano), is currently receiving much acclaim. He is currently a student at Vanderbilt University in Nashville.

2014-2015 Season

Junior Division: Alisha Stafford, violin

Alicia Stafford is a 13 year old violinist and student at Papillion Junior High in Papillion, NE. She began playing the violin at age eight, and now studies with Ruth Meints at the Omaha Conservatory of Music. Alisha is currently a member of the OAYO Youth Philharmonic, and also plays with the Frontier String Ensemble. In July, she participated in the Omaha Conservatory's Summer Institute program. Alicia and her family now reside in Virginia.

Senior Division: Isabella Amador, violin

Isabella (Izzi) Amador is a junior at Millard North High School in Omaha. She began her studies at age 4, following in the footsteps of her musical parents, Rico and Mary Amador, of Omaha. She currently studies violin with Ruth Meints at the Omaha Conservatory of Music (OCM). Isabella has participated in the OCM Institute sessions since 2006, as well as the Sound Encounters workshops in Ottawa, KS from 2011-2013. Isabella currently participates in the Millard North High School Orchestra, OAYO Youth Symphony, the Frontier String Ensemble, as well as many other OCM ensembles. Isabella is currently attending the University of Michigan.

Orchestral Division: Jonathan Herman, piano

Jonathan Herman is a 17 year old pianist from Cambridge, IA. A homeschooled student, he has studied with Dr. Paul Barnes for the last five years. Jonathan also spent the last two summers studying piano at the Interlochen Arts Camp in Michigan, and has participated in masterclasses at UNO and the University of Northern Iowa. He has performed in numerous piano competitions throughout the midwest, and was selected as the Nebraska MTNA competition winner in 2013.

2015-2016 Season

Junior Division: Renee Santos, violin

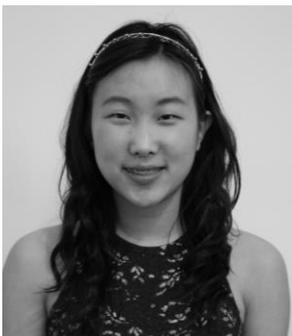

A homeschooled student, Renee currently studies violin with Erin Cosby and has participated in the Omaha Conservatory of Music's Winter Festival Orchestra Program for the last three years. In addition to playing violin, Renee also studies piano with Dr. James Johnson at the University of Nebraska-Omaha. She has received MTNA performance awards on both violin and piano, and enjoys performing with her sister, Nicole, as the musical duo Forte, which performed with the Cherokee Symphony in 2015. Renee plans to attend college and major in English and Violin Performance.

Senior Division: Robert Hwang, violin

Robert is a sophomore at North High School in Sioux City, IA. He began studying violin at age 5, and currently studies with Kimberly Fisher, principal second violinist of the Philadelphia Orchestra. Robert has served as the concertmaster of the Siouxland Youth Symphony, Northwest Iowa Honor Orchestra, and the Iowa All-State Orchestra. He has participated in competitions sponsored by the Cherokee Symphony, South Dakota MTNA, and the Philadelphia International Music Festival. In addition to music, Robert also excels in math and science. He designed a scientific experiment based on peanut allergies, which has been selected for testing by NASA astronauts on the International Space Station this year. Robert is now attending college at Columbia University in New York City.

Orchestral Division: Christina Youn, piano

Christina is a junior at Millard North High School. She currently studies piano with Yulia Kalashnikova at the Omaha Conservatory of Music, and is a previous student of Dr. Momoro Ono. Christina is the choir accompanist for St. Andrew Kim Church, and accompanied for the fall musicals Young Frankenstein and Hairspray at Millard North. She has also participated in numerous festivals in Nebraska, receiving superior ratings for her performances. In addition to piano, Christina is also an accomplished violinist, having performed with the Millard North High School Orchestra and OAYO. She is a member of the Millard North Varsity tennis team, and enjoys reading in her spare time. As of 2017, Christina is now attending the University of Notre Dame in South Bend, IN.

2016-2017 Season

Junior Division: Pranay Neelakanta, violin

Pranay Neelakanta is a seventh grader at Elkhorn Valley View Middle School. He started playing violin at age 8, and studies with Ruth Meints at the Omaha Conservatory of Music. In addition to violin, Pranay also plays the piano. He is currently a member of the OAYO Youth Philharmonic, and also plays with the Frontier String Ensemble. In July, Pranay participated in the Omaha Conservatory of Music's Summer Institute program, and has also attended several violin masterclasses. Pranay is an avid reader and likes to read realistic fiction. He volunteers at the Omaha Public Library during summer. Pranay likes playing basketball, as well as video games on his XBox. He is a member of the Elkhorn Soccer Club and also enjoys hiking, bird watching, and creating canvas paintings of birds. Pranay's favorite subjects in School are Math and World History, and he will be participating in the Regional History Bee this spring.

Senior Division: Sarah Tindall, cello

Sarah is a freshman at South Sioux City High School in South Sioux City, NE. Her passion for music began when she was five and continues to develop as she grows in her knowledge and understanding of the cello. She currently studies with Dr. Marie-Elaine Gagnon, professor of cello at the University of South Dakota. Sarah has won competitions in Cherokee, IA, Omaha, NE and Philadelphia, PA. As the 2015 and 2016 South Dakota representative to the MTNA regional string competition, Sarah placed second and third respectively. This past fall, she traveled to Lincoln, Nebraska to join the Nebraska All-State Orchestra under the direction of Anthony Elliott. As of 2021, Sarah is currently pursuing her degree in Cello Performance at the New England Conservatory of Music in Boston, MA.

Orchestral Division: Alina Hatfield, piano

Alina is a freshman at Elkhorn South High School. Her adventures in music began at age 6 while living in Ireland. Upon returning to the United States at age 7, she began studying piano with Anne Madison at the Omaha Conservatory of Music (OCM). At age 11, Alina won the first prize as a Junior Virtuoso at the 2013 Nebraska Summer Music Olympics. She also won the 2013 and 2014 MTNA State Junior Competitions, and took second place in the 2015 and 2016 MTNA State Junior Competitions. She also placed second at the 2016 Kearney Symphony Orchestra Young Artist Competition. Alina has attended several summer music institutes, such as the OCM Institute, the Tyrolean International Piano Academy in Austria, and the International Institute for Young Musicians in Kansas. She was selected as the 2016 Nebraska

Rising Stars at the University of Nebraska at Omaha and performed during the program. Besides playing piano, she plays video and strategy games and participates in the Robotic club at her school. Most of all, she enjoys playing with her dog, Jade.

2017-2018 Season

Junior Division: Pauline Lee, violin

Pauline Lee, a fifth grader at Spring Ridge Elementary, began studying violin at age 6 with Ruth Meints at the Omaha Conservatory of Music (OCM). Pauline has attended the Conservatory's OCMI Institute, the Texas Strings Festival (led by Dr. Pasha Sabouri) each summer, and participated in masterclasses with the Amernet String Quartet, Dr. Sabouri, Jinjoo Cho, and Amy Schwartz Moretti. She was awarded OCM's Dr. David Jasper Scholarship for the 2016 and 2017 academic years, was selected as KVNO's January 2017 Classical Kid, and was a contestant for the 2017 Nebraska Celebration of Music program.

Pauline is an auditioned member of the OAYO Youth Philharmonic and Frontier Strings. Outside of music, Pauline is a member of Egg-cellent, Nebraska's representing team for the 2017 Global Destination Imagination competition, which turns student ideas into reality.

Senior Division: Derek Hwang, cello

Derek Hwang is a sophomore at North High School in Sioux City, IA. He started cello lessons at the age of 5, and is currently a student of Mr. Peter Howard, the retired Principal Cellist of the St. Paul Chamber Orchestra. Derek has won numerous competitions and has performed as a soloist with Siouxland Youth Symphony, the Fort Dodge Symphony, Cherokee Symphony, the Central Iowa Symphony, and with Orchestra Omaha as Junior Division winner in 2014. Derek was a finalist in the 2017 National MTNA Competition. As a high school freshman, Derek won first chair of the cello section in the Iowa All-State Orchestra; the performance was broadcast statewide on Iowa Public Television. Besides cello, Derek is dedicated to scientific research. His research paper about bird flu was recognized by the World Food Prize Foundation, and as a Borlaug scholar, he will be attending the Global Youth Institute, where he will be discussing animal biology and food security issues with international experts. Derek is currently pursuing his degree in Chemistry at Harvard University.

Orchestral Division: Nicole Santos, piano

Nicole Santos is a freshman at the University of South Dakota (USD), studying music performance with an emphasis in piano under Dr. Susan Keith Gray. She began studying of piano at the age of six - her past teachers include Pamela Eyerly of Metamora, IL, and Dr. James Johnson, former Professor of Piano at the University of Nebraska-Omaha. Most recently, Nicole was awarded first alternate at the MTNA competition at the state level for South Dakota for the Senior Piano division. She also received third place in the instrumental division of the Glenn Miller Scholarship Competition in June 2017. In addition to piano, Nicole is also an accomplished violinist. She is currently a member of both the USD Symphony and Chamber Orchestras, and played violin with Orchestra Omaha during the 2016-17 season. Nicole and her younger sister, Renee, performed Sarasate's Navarra as a violin duo with the Cherokee Symphony in April 2017. Nicole graduated from the University of South Dakota in 2021.

2018-2019 Season

Junior Division: Jasmine Palikhya, violin

Jasmine is a 7th grader at Westside Middle School. She began violin lessons in 2009 and currently studies with Ruth Meints at the Omaha Conservatory of Music (OCM). Jasmine has attended the Conservatory's OCMI Institute, and has participated in masterclasses with the Amernet String Quartet, Jinjoo Cho, Liza Ferschtman, and Amy Schwartz Moretti. She has been a Merit Scholar at OCM for the last 3 academic years, was selected as KVNO Classical Kid in 2015. She is the concertmaster of the OAYO Youth Philharmonic and also plays in the Frontier Strings Ensemble. Outside of music, Jasmine has previously participated in the Nebraska State Geography Bee, and enjoys reading, painting, and playing volleyball.

Senior Division (tie): Ilana McNamara, viola

Ilana McNamara began playing viola in 4th grade, and currently studies with Ruth Meints. Ilana is also a member of OAYO and serves as principal violist of the Youth Symphony. She has also been a section leader in the Nebraska All-State Orchestra, OCMI Winter Festival Orchestra, and the UNL Chamber Strings institute. An avid lover of chamber music since the seventh grade, Ilana has participated in masterclasses with the Chiara, Euclid, and Amernet Quartets. She attends the Greenwood Chamber Music Camp in Massachusetts, and has also performed with world-class musicians at the Keshet Eilon Winter Seminar in Israel. Ilana enjoys teaching others, serving as an assistant with the OCM String Sprouts program, as well as managing a studio of her own. A 2019 graduate of Central High School, Ilana will attend Oberlin College and Conservatory in the fall, where she plans on double majoring in viola performance and mathematics. Besides playing the viola, Ilana enjoys reading, traveling, and making time for her family and friends.

Senior Division (tie): Steven Pruss, violin

Steven Pruss is a 2019 graduate of Benson High School in Omaha. He started violin lessons at the age of three, and is currently a student of Anne Nagosky. Steven has participated in numerous competitions and performed as a soloist with the OAYO Youth Symphony, Hastings Symphony, Cherokee Symphony, and the Omaha Symphony. He was also selected as Co-Concertmaster of the Nebraska All-State Orchestra, and enjoys teaching and coaching younger violinists. In addition to playing the violin, Steven has been very active at Benson High School, participating on the tennis, swim, and track teams, as well as JROTC. This fall, he will be attending the Illinois Institute of Technology in Chicago and plans to major in biochemistry. His goal is to attend medical school and eventually become a surgeon.

Orchestral Division: No Winner Selected

2019-2020 Season

Junior Division: Auspy Li, violin

Auspy is the 11 year old son of Shuai and Ji Li of Omaha, and a fifth grader at Aldrich Elementary School in Omaha. He began playing violin at age 6 with Melissa Pruss, and currently studies with William Wolcott. Auspy attended OAYO Youth Concert Strings for 2018 and 2019, and served as first chair for both years. He also attended UNO String Olympics competitions in 2017, 2018 and 2019, winning gold medals each time. In his spare time, Auspy enjoys listening to all kinds of music. His hobbies include playing video games, reading books, fishing, and playing basketball.

Senior Division: Renee Santos, violin

Renee began playing violin at the age of 6, and some of her previous teachers include Dr. Ioana Galu, Erin Cosby, and Anne Nagosky. She is currently attending the University of Iowa (UI) and studies with Dr. Scott Conklin. Renee received First Place in the Strings Division of the University of South Dakota Young Artist Competition in 2019, and was also selected as a featured performer for the Midwest Violin Caucus at the University of Northern Iowa with the Interro String Quartet. Renee has performed as a soloist with Orchestra Omaha (2016) and the Cherokee Symphony (2019). She has also participated in masterclasses with Liza Ferschtman, Pasha Sabouri, the Chiara String Quartet, Jinjoo Cho, and Annie Fullard of the Cavani String Quartet. In college, Renee is a member of University of Iowa Symphony Orchestra and the UI Chamber Music Residency Program. In addition to violin, Renee also studies piano with Dr. Rene Lecuona.

Orchestral Division: Linda Xu, flute

Linda Xu is currently a junior at Elkhorn South High School. She has been involved in music for most of her life, starting with piano at age five, and flute in the sixth grade. She currently studies with Dr. Christine Beard, professor of flute at the University of Nebraska-Omaha. Linda participates in local honor bands and has been a member of the Nebraska All-State Band for two consecutive years.

2020-2021 Season

Junior Division: Anna Suh, violin

Anna Suh is a seventh grade honor roll student at Elkhorn Ridge Middle School in Omaha. She started to play piano at age six, and added violin at age of nine. Currently, Anna studies violin with Ruth Meints, and is a McDaniel Scholar at the Omaha Conservatory of Music. She also plays with the Frontier String Ensemble and participates in chamber music. Anna is a previous member of the OAYO Concert Strings Orchestra and OAYO Youth Philharmonic. During her time in the Philharmonic, she served as Principal Second Violin for the last half of the season. Anna was awarded an Honorable Mention recognition in the MTNA 2020 Junior Strings competition. Besides playing violin, Anna enjoys playing video and strategy games.

Senior Division: Libby Meade, viola

Libby is a sophomore at Millard North High School in Omaha. She has studied viola with Ruth Meints since 2018, and is a Jasper Scholar at the Omaha Conservatory of Music (OCM). In 2019, Libby won First Place in the Nebraska ASTA Solo Competition in 2019, and was also selected as an alternate for the Nebraska MTNA Solo Competition. Libby has attended several music festivals and programs, including the Gingold and Bowdoin Chamber Music Programs, the Heifetz Program for the Exceptionally Gifted, and the OCMI Institute. She has performed in masterclasses with Clark Potter, Kristen Docter, the Amernet Quartet, and Roger Myers. Libby currently performs in the Millard North High School Orchestra, the Frontier Strings Ensemble, as well as in chamber ensembles at OCM. Outside of music, Libby enjoys running cross country, track, and soccer. She also has a passion for languages, geography, and learning about other cultures.

Orchestral Division: Samarth Sanketh, flute

Samarth is a sophomore at Millard North High School in Omaha. He has been a student of Nestor Herszbaum since 2017. Samarth is a member of the Millard North High School Wind Symphony, Marching Band and Jazz Band. He was selected for the Blair Honor Band in 2019, and the Nebraska All-State Band in 2019 and 2020. Samarth has also received numerous superior ratings for solo and ensemble performances at the Elkhorn Band Olympics and NSAA District Solo and Ensemble Contest. He is a member of the Millard North Math Club, and enjoys swimming, hiking, and reading. Samarth plans to attend college and double major in music and neuroscience.